

Birkdale Village 4th of July Celebration
Features Fireman's Face-Off, Heroes Parade

CHARLOTTE, N.C., June 12, 2003 — Birkdale Village hosts its second annual 4th of July Celebration on Friday, July 4. Events include the Fireman's Face-off Water Challenge, the Best Decorated Wheels contest, Most Patriotic Pet contest, Most Patriotic Kid contest and Hero's Parade. Right Choice Youth Programs will provide a free picnic lunch (while supplies last) to parade participants. Huntersville Parks & Recreation will host family games.

Evening entertainment includes Bobs Yer Uncle playing under the stars until fireworks begin at Robbins Park (behind Birkdale Village) around 9:30 p.m. Birkdale Village events are held in conjunction with the Lake Norman Fireworks Extravaganza & Celebration hosted by Huntersville and Cornelius and sponsored by Lake Norman Regional Medical Center.

Birkdale Village is located off Sam Furr Road in Huntersville, N.C. just off Interstate 77 at Exit 25.

###

(MORE)